

MIDDLE TENNESSEE

STATE UNIVERSITY

History (African American History), Full-Time Lecturer, Faculty

The Department of History at Middle Tennessee State University invites applicants for a full-time, temporary (non-tenurable) faculty position (#109350) in African American History at the rank of Lecturer. This is a one-year appointment with possible annual renewal for up to three years total. Position contingent upon funding. Start date for the position is August 1, 2021.

The successful candidate will be a specialist in African American history and will be prepared to teach African American history surveys. PhD in History or closely related field is required by appointment date.

To apply or for more detailed information visit <https://careers.mtsu.edu> . MTSU is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer that values diversity in all its forms. Women, minorities, individuals with disabilities and protected veterans are encouraged to apply.

University Expectation

MTSU seeks candidates who are committed to innovative teaching and meaningful service. We also seek to attract a culturally and academically diverse faculty who value working with a diverse student body.

Successful candidates will be specialists in African American history and will be prepared to teach African American history surveys.

Required Education

PhD in History or closely related field by appointment date

Use the following link to apply for the position: Apply Here

<https://www.aaihs.org/resources/af-am-job-openings/>