Postdoctoral Scholar in the Africana Research Center (ARC)

POSITION SPECIFICS

The Africana Research Center (ARC) at The Pennsylvania State University invites applications for a Postdoctoral Scholar.

The postdoctoral fellow must be in residence at Penn State's University Park campus for the duration of their appointment. During their residency, scholars must conduct research in any aspect of African, African American, and/or Diaspora Studies. The scholar will have no teaching or administrative responsibilities. In addition, they will attend workshops, professional development sessions and other relevant events, and will be expected to take an active part in Penn State's community of researchers. The ARC provides mentorship and professional development for a one-year term, with the possibility of renewal for a second year.

A Ph.D. in African American Studies, African Diasporic Studies, or a related field is required by the appointment date.

Interested candidates must submit an online application at <https://hr.psu.edu/careers>, and should upload the following application materials: a letter of interest, CV or resume, and a list of three references with contact information. For information on the position, please contact the Africana Research Center: africanacenter@psu.edu
